ABBOTTS' N. Y. DIGEST. (Entirely New Edition.)

A DIGEST OF NEW YORK STATUTES AND REPORTS, from the Earliest Period to the year 1873. Comprising the Adjudications of all Courts of the State, together with the Statutes of General Application. Six vols. Royal octavo. Price $7.50 per vol.

"As a monument of accurate research and correct judgment, we know of nothing of its kind that equals this Digest. As an acquisition to our jurisprudence, it does honor to the State, and merits the gratitude of every lawyer. . . . One feature, however, may be noted—that it is perfectly exhaustive of the work it undertakes. . . . We congratulate the Bar of this State on the possession, at last, of a Digest worthy of the learning of its Courts, and the importance of the business in their charge. It is in every way fitting that the foremost State of the Union should have the best compilation of its judicial decisions. We do not hesitate to say that, in breadth of design, thoroughness of research, comprehension of the multitudinous subjects in hand, classification, convenience and accuracy, there is no similar work in the world which can, as a whole, compare with this Digest."—N. Y. Legal Transcript.

☞ This work has acquired a National reputation, and the volumes should be in the possession of every Lawyer, not only of New York, but of all the States, as they are almost equally valuable in every part of the Union.

Abbotts' Forms of Practice and Pleading.

A FULL COLLECTION OF FORMS OF PRACTICE AND PLEADING IN ACTIONS, whether for legal or equitable relief, and in special proceedings. Prepared with reference to the Code of Procedure, and to the New Practice as existing in the States of New York, Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, Iowa, Oregon, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Missouri, Alabama, California, North Carolina, South Carolina, Florida, Arkansas, and other States. 2 vols. Price $12.00.

☞ The object of this work is to present a well-selected and ample collection of forms of Practice and Pleading, with especial reference to the changes in practice introduced in many of the States by the Code of Procedure or Practice Acts.

☞ These forms have met with the general approval of the Legal Profession, and, from the unusual success attending the work, the publishers believe it to be the best of its kind now in use. The Fourth Edition is now ready.

Abbotts' Clerks' and Conveyancers' Assistant.

A COLLECTION OF FORMS OF CONVEYANCING, Contracts, and Legal Proceedings. For the use of the Legal Profession, Business Men, and Public Officers in the United States. With copious Instructions, Explanations, and Authorities. By ABBOTT BROS. In one large 8vo. vol. Price $6.00.

☞ This work is the Latest, Fullest, and Best. It is divided into ninety-five chapters, and contains OVER 1,300 FORMS, covering nearly every subject connected with Conveyancing, Contracts, and Legal Proceedings, with copious instructions, explanations, and authorities.

The work is adapted to the wants of the Legal Profession, Public Officers, and of business men in general. The forms are sufficiently clear to enable one to use them who has not a knowledge of technical law.

The work is intended for circulation in every part of the country. Care has been taken, upon all subjects of general importance, to explain the difference between the laws of different States, and, where necessary, to present forms appropriate to each.

Abbotts' Digest of the Law of Corporations.

This work is a GENERAL DIGEST OF THE LAW OF CORPORATIONS. It presents the American adjudications of general interest, upon public and private corporations of every kind, with a full selection of English cases. In one large, extra size royal 8vo. volume of over one thousand pages. Best law book style. Price $10.00.

☞ The work embraces all branches of the law of corporations. Under the titles of the various specific corporations, such as Banks, Insurance, Manufacturing and Mining Companies, Municipal Corporations, Railroad Companies, Religious Corporations, Savings Banks, Telegraph and Turnpike Companies, &c., the law more particularly applicable to them each is presented.

Abbotts' Practice Reports.

REPORTS OF PRACTICE CASES DETERMINED in the Courts of the State of New York, with a Digest of all Points of Practice embraced in the Standard New York Reports and Acts of the Legislature, published during the period covered by each volume. By ABBOTT BROS., Counsellors at Law. 19 vols. $5 per vol. Vols. 1 to 14, New Series, $5 each.

 By Practice Cases the editors do not mean cases decided under the Code exclusively. Cases illustrative of Criminal Practice, of the mode of conducting Special Proceedings, of the Rules of Evidence, of Procedure in the various Special Tribunals, are, to a considerable extent, embraced in the plan.

In a word, the series embraces decisions which instruct the professional man how to do that which he is liable, professionally, to be called upon to do.

Bump's Law and Practice of Bankruptcy.

THE BANKRUPT LAW, WITH ALL THE AMENDMENTS, WITH NOTES OF ALL THE DECISIONS TO TIME OF PUBLICATION, ARRANGED UNDER EACH SECTION. Also, The Rules of Equity Practice in U. S. Courts. Everything connected with the Bankrupt Law is given. By ORLANDO F. BUMP, Esq., Register, Baltimore. 1 vol. 8vo. Seventh Edition, with a Full Treatise. Price $7.50.

 The Notes have been compiled and arranged by a Register in Bankruptcy. They were collected in the course of his actual practice, and it is confidently believed that they will stand the test of practice; for it was in practice that they had their origin, and for practice that they were prepared. They have, moreover, this advantage, that they have been collected by one whose official position has made the Bankrupt Law a specialty with him.

Bump's Fraudulent Conveyances.

A TREATISE ON CONVEYANCES MADE BY DEBTORS TO DEFRAUD CREDITORS. Containing References to all the Cases, both English and American. By O. F. BUMP, Esq. 1 vol. 8vo. Price 7.50.

 This work is exhaustive upon a subject that arises every week in the office of an active practitioner. It is also a companion volume to Mr. Bump's "Law and Practice of Bankruptcy," and both together completely exhibit the law governing the relation of Debtor and Creditor.

Bump's U. S. Revenue Laws. (Complete to 1873.)

THE ANNOTATED UNITED STATES INTERNAL REVENUE LAWS. Decisions of the Courts, Rulings, &c. By ORLANDO F. BUMP, Esq. 1 vol. $5 50.

Barnewall & Alderson's Reports.

REPORT OF CASES argued and determined in the Court of King's Bench, from Michaelmas Term, 58 Geo. III., to Trinity Term, 60 Geo. III. The two vols. are bound in one ($6), and printed to correspond with the English Common Law Reports, which contain a reprint of the 3d, 4th, and 5th vols. only. These volumes are therefore rendered necessary to the purchasers of the English Common Law Reports to make their series complete. (2 vols. in 1, $6.) In 2 vols., $7.00.

Benedict's U. S. District Court Reports.

REPORTS OF CASES before the District Courts of the United States in the Second Circuit. These Reports embrace Decisions under the Internal Revenue Act, the Bankrupt Act, the National Bank Act, as well as Decisions in Admiralty, &c., &c., decided by Judge BLATCHFORD and Judge BENEDICT.

 The cases reported in this volume comprise all the Prize Suits (nearly two hundred) decided in these Courts during the Rebellion, with the exception of a few in which decrees were entered without any opinion having been filed by the Court.

 Aside from the value to the Legal Profession, this volume is particularly interesting as a contribution to the history of the late Rebellion—giving, as it does, the facts in many Cases which are of special public importance.

Bliss on Life Insurance.

A TREATISE ON THE LAW OF LIFE INSURANCE, with Chapters on Accident and Guarantee Insurance. By GEORGE BLISS, Esq. Second edition. 1 vol. 8vo. $7.50.

 This work meets an acknowledged want of the Bar and of all persons interested in Life and Accident Insurance. It has been prepared by a lawyer of nearly twenty years standing at the New York Bar, whose practice has compelled him to examine the questions involved.

Blydenburgh on Usury.

REDFIELD'S N. Y. SURROGATE'S REPORTS. IN CONTINUATION. Vol. 1. Price $6.00.

 These are the only Surrogate's Reports published in this country. A leading writer, referring to the author, says: "We are willing to place his decisions by the side of the English and the Continental Jurists as the American Representative of this branch of Jurisprudence. The foundation of the American law relating to estates of deceased persons is laid, and Surrogate Bradford's labors as Pioneer in the field are entitled to the like recognition as those of Kent in general law and Story in commercial law."

Burrill's New Law Dictionary and Glossary.

A NEW LAW DICTIONARY AND GLOSSARY: Containing full definitions of the principal terms of the Common and Civil Law, together with translations and explanations of the various technical phrases in different languages occurring in the ancient and modern reports and standard treatises; embracing also all the principal common and civil law maxims. Compiled on the basis of Spelman's Glossary, and adapted to the jurisprudence of the United States; with copious illustrations, critical and historical. By ALEXANDER M. BURRILL, Esq., Counsellor at Law. Second Edition. Revised and Enlarged. 2 vols. royal octavo. Price $10.

 This work, as its title indicates, and as the author explains in his advertisement, combines the characteristic features of a defining dictionary, with those of a Glossary: being, in both respects, devoted exclusively to the exposition of the language of the law. As a dictionary it embraces the definition of law terms, including not only technical terms, properly so called, but also such ordinary words as have been used in technical senses, or made the subjects of judicial or legislative construction or definition. The latter branch is an entirely new feature, and will prove as valuable as it is novel.

Burrill on Voluntary Assignments.

A TREATISE ON VOLUNTARY ASSIGNMENTS for the benefit of Creditors, in which is incorporated the statutory provisions and decisions of the courts in the several States; also, the law governing assignees as to their rights, duties, and liabilities. To which is added an Appendix of Forms. Second edition, enlarged and greatly improved. By ALEXANDER M. BURRILL, Esq., Counsellor at Law. One vol. Price, $7.50.

 This is the only work on the subject, and fully meets the wants of the Profession. It will be found of much service in cases arising under the Bankrupt Laws, &c.

Burrill on Circumstantial Evidence.

A TREATISE OF THE NATURE, Principles, and Rules of Circumstantial Evidence, especially that of the Presumptive Kind, in Criminal Cases. By ALEXANDER M. BURRILL, Counsellor at Law, &c. 1 vol 8vo., 800 pages. Price, $7.50.

 This is a learned, philosophical, and highly interesting work—not “a mere law book,” treating of subtle, refined, and technical doctrines of law, but a treatise on the logical rules whereby truth is ascertained and established by combinations of isolated facts, and the presumptions properly arising therefrom. Its perusal will dispel from any mind the fallacy so general (we had almost said universal) with persons not of the legal profession, that “circumstantial evidence” is at best but feeble, and not to be relied on.

“Mr. Burrill's previous works have been highly appreciated and commended by the profession; but we regard the volume under consideration as that on which his reputation as a learned legal writer, and profound legal thinker, will rest. A disciplined, active, and exact mind is visible throughout its pages.”—New York Observer.

Cleaveland's New York Banking Laws.

THE BANKING SYSTEM OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, with notes and references to adjudged cases, including also an account of the New York Clearing House. By JOHN CLEAVELAND, Counsellor at Law. A valuable work for Banking Institutions and Individual Bankers, also, for Members of the Legal Profession. With the National Bank Act. One vol. 8vo. Second edition. Price $5.50.

 It contains the General Banking Laws of 1838, as originally passed, with notes and references to all subsequent amendments, and to the decisions of the Courts. It embraces all the acts which have been passed since 1838 amending the General Banking Law.

It includes, also, all Statutes of the State relating to Individual Bankers acting under the general law: also, the provisions of the Revised Statutes to prevent the insolvency of moneyed Corporations; and proceedings against them in Equity, and in Courts of Law, &c., &c.

This volume also contains the Statutes regulating proceedings and suits against Foreign Corporations; and the acts to prevent Usury, and to prevent Corporations interposing the defense of Usury. Also, a Digest of all the leading Decisions of the Courts, from 1838 to 1856, relating to the General Banking Law, and the acts amendatory thereof. With an elaborate Index to all the principal matters.

This Edition also contains THE REVISED RULES OF THE COURTS, and a FULL ANALYTICAL INDEX to the Code and Court Rules.

The Hon. JOHN K. PORTER, late of the Court of Appeals, says of "The Code as It Is:" "It is a pleasure to see it in a volume so compact and convenient for reference. The Index is an admirable one, and worth the price of the book."

The work is handsomely printed in small type, open, on fine paper. 32mo., about 300 pages, flexible covers. Price $1.50.

Chalmers' Colonial Opinions.

THE INSTITUTES OF JUSTINIAN, Translated, with Notes. By THOMAS COOPER, Esq. Third edition, with Additional Notes and References by ANDREW S. GARR, Esq., Counsellor at Law, New York. 1 large vol. 8vo. Price $6.50.

"This edition of Justinian's Institutes is an extremely useful work, containing a very accurate and close translation of the original, together with notes at once learned and practical. We are not aware of any edition of this celebrated work more likely to be useful to English law students, and we can safely recommend it to those aspirants to the bar who are now cultivating the Roman law."—London Legal Examiner.

Daly's Common Pleas Reports.

REPORTS OF CASES ARGUED AND DETERMINED in the Court of Common Pleas for the City and County of New York, with Notes and References and Index. 4 vols. By Hon. C. P. DALY, First Judge. Price $26.00.

(See also Smith's Common Pleas Reports.)

 The eminent Judge editing these volumes has enjoyed the longest judicial experience, with one exception, of any Judge now on the bench in this State, and the volume has been prepared by him with characteristic fidelity and ability.

 The great number of Cases, involving questions of Commercial and Mercantile Law, growing out of the commerce of the business metropolis, which constantly arise in this Court, make these Reports of special value to the Profession throughout the country.

Digest of the Law of Fire Insurance.

THE WHOLE LAW OF FIRE INSURANCE, as Decided by the Courts of Great Britain and the United States, from the earliest period to the present time. Arranged under One Hundred and Five Divisions or Headings, elucidating every point of Insurance Law as determined by Judicial Decisions. Third edition. By CLEMENT BATES. 1 vol. 8vo. Price $7.50.

Messrs. Littleton & Blatchley, the Editors of the first edition of this Digest, did their labor faithfully. In the preparation of the work, they carefully examined 2,576 volumes of English and American Law Reports, and gave abstracts of 930 Insurance Cases, which they embodied in 1,525 Sections. And they read (so they say in their preface) every case cited.

The Third, Revised, and Enlarged Edition was edited by Clement Bates, Esq., of the Cincinnati Bar, and the publishers believe he has done his work thoroughly. He carefully examined every volume of Reports published in this country and in Great Britain since 1868, and digested every Insurance Case. The present work contains abstracts of 1608 Cases,—thus giving 678 Cases more than were contained in the first edition.

No other work gives the entire body of Judicial Decisions in this Department of the Law; and the volume must be of great use, not only to the Legal Profession, but to the Officers and Agents of Insurance Companies, as well as to all others interested in this important branch of business.

Duer on Marine Insurance.

THE LAW AND PRACTICE of Marine Insurance, deduced from a critical Examination of the adjudged Cases, the Nature and Analogies of the Subject, and the General Usage of Commercial Nations. By Hon. J. DUER, late Justice of the Superior Court, New York. 2 vols., 8vo. Price $15.00.

Edwards on Receivers in Equity.

The decisions and practice under the New York Code in relation to the appointment of receivers as between judgment creditor and debtor, and the setting aside fraudulent assignments by the latter, are very fully given, and a large space is devoted to the subject of the insolvency and dissolution, voluntary or involuntary, of banking and insurance corporations. To the New York practitioner such a work must be indispensable. And it will be of use in all the States where the courts exercise chancery powers.

Edwards' Juryman's Guide. (Old, Rare, and Useful.)

THE JURYMAN'S GUIDE, containing general matter for the Lawyer and the Law Officer. By CHARLES EDWARDS, Esq. 1 vol. 8vo. Price $2.00.

Edwards on the Stamp Act.

A PRACTICAL TREATISE ON THE STAMP ACT of July 1, 1862, and Amending Statutes to March, 1863, with Authorities and Cases, and Expositions from the Office of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, &c., &c. By CHARLES EDWARDS, Esq. Second revised edition. 1 vol. 8vo. A Schedule of Stamp Duties, Rulings, Decisions, &c., as now established (1872), is appended. Price $4.00.

As this act is based upon, and even copied from, portions of the British Statutes relating to Stamps, English cases, which are interspersed, will be found all-important.

No other work upon the subject has been published in this country; and this treatise will, therefore, be an indispensable part of every lawyer's library throughout the Union.

Edwards' Pleasantries

ABOUT COURTS AND LAWYERS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK. By CHARLES EDWARDS, Esq. 1 vol. 8vo. cloth. (Scarce.)

This lively and instructive work was published by subscription, and has only recently been offered to the Bar generally. It will be relished by Lawyers in every part of the country. It is full of the most humorous anecdotes and interesting reminiscences of such men as Kent, Burr, Butler, Oakley, O'Connor, Sedgwick, Seward, Brady, Gerard, Van Buren, Spencer, Hoffman, Ogden, and nearly all the other great legal lights of New York.

Elwell's Malpractice and Medical Evidence.

 This work has become a Standard Authority, not only in this country but in Europe. Prof. CARPENTER, the eminent English Physiologist, in referring to the work, says: "I know of no instance in which the combination of Legal and Medical knowledge has been so remarkably shown as it has in Dr. Elwell's treatment of the subjects he has undertaken."

Gardner's International Law.

INSTITUTES OF INTERNATIONAL LAW, Public and Private, as settled by the Supreme Court of the United States, and by our Republic, with Reference to Judicial Decisions. By DANIEL GARDNER, Esq., Counsellor at Law, of the New York Bar. 1 vol. Price $5.50.

"I have examined, as fully as my professional engagements would permit, the Institutes of International Law, by the Hon. Daniel Gardner; and I regard the work as a most valuable and accurate one, and much more essential to a practicing lawyer than its title would seem to indicate. Indeed, many of its titles embrace subjects of every-day interest, such as the law of Marriage and Divorce, Authentication of Statutes, Foreign Judgments and Decrees, Bankruptcy, Pilotage and Salvage, Navigable Waters, &c., and many others, upon which the authorities are collected and the legal rules stated with accuracy and discrimination. In my opinion the work will much facilitate the labors of the Bar and the Bench."—Wm. Curtis Noyes.

"The work evinces great learning and research in relation to the rights and duties of American citizens under our State and National Governments, and, at the same time, presents a concise system of International Law, as held by our Republic.

"It will fill a place in American Law and civil polity which has not been filled before. It should be in the hands of every public man, of the Officers of the Army and Navy of the United States, of Merchants generally, of Judges and Lawyers, of private gentlemen, and, in short, of every citizen who wishes to become acquainted with the institutions of his own country, and with our relations and duties towards foreign nations."—N. P. Tallmadge.

Also the nature and incidents of the various kinds of Estates in Land, and the different Liens to which Land is subject in this State, how such Liens are Created, and how Removed.

The volume is intended to operate as a Practical Manual to facilitate the labors of the Profession in the Examination of Titles to Land in this State, by having all matters connected therewith concentrated in one volume for reference, and by affording a ready means for the Instruction of Students and other Assistants of Conveyancers.

Gerard's City Water Rights.

Greenleaf's Overruled Cases.

A FULL COLLECTION OF CASES, Overruled, Denied, Doubted, or Limited in their Application, taken from American and English Reports. By SIMON GREENLEAF, Esq., Law Professor of Harvard University. Revised and continued to the time of publication, by JOHN TOWNSEND, Esq. 1 vol. 8vo., 4th edition. Price $4.50.

 "The last edition of Mr. Greenleaf's collection of Overruled Cases appeared in 1840. The edition before us contains, in addition, a list of overruled cases from that time down to the present day, upwards of 1,500 in number. It embraces British and Colonial Decisions, as well as those in the various States of this country and in the United States Courts; and those made in this State come as far down as the second volume of Abbott and the eleventh of Howard's Practice Reports. The arrangement is alphabetical under the plaintiff's name, so that at a glance the lawyer can tell whether any given decision has been overruled or doubted. No lawyer need be informed of the convenience of such a work, and the obligation of the profession to its author and editor for the diligence and labor bestowed upon it."—Evening Post.

☞ One hundred and seventy-five reports are referred to throughout the work, embracing those of the United States, and of each State of the Union. The great advantage of this work is, that it embraces only Criminal Cases, while the Digests heretofore compiled have embraced, in the same work, both Civil and Criminal matter, thus subjecting the profession to an examination of a series of Digests in order to arrive at a knowledge of the decisions in Criminal Cases. In cases where the same principle has been decided in different States, all the decisions have been grouped into one section, retaining only the title of the case, the reference to the report, and the number of the page—thus avoiding unnecessary repetition of the same matter.

Among the topics discussed are the following: The formation of a railroad company—The construction and extent of its powers—Power of the Legislature over the Company, and how affected by the United States Constitution—Taxation—Creation of capital stock by subscriptions, with the power of municipal corporations to make them, and the defence of the subscribers—Issue and transfer of shares, and the liability of the company therefor, when fraudulent—Acquisition of right of way and of real estate by purchase, and also by condemnation, with an examination of the power of eminent domain, and for what injuries compensation may be made, with the rules for determining the same and the evidence admissible—Location of the road—Liability for torts in general, with a discussion of the proper remedy therefor—Personal injuries resulting in death—Injuries to persons not in privity with the company, and the rule of negligence—Injuries to servants, to property by fire, to cattle at common law and under statutes—Contracts of the company, with its capacity to contract—Liability as a common carrier of goods and of passengers—Remedies—Mortgages of property and franchises, &c., &c.

His classification of topics is eminently satisfactory, and the book contains abundant evidence that no pertinent authorities of any value have been overlooked."—New York Evening Post.

Ram's Treatise on Facts

AS SUBJECTS OF INQUIRY BY A JURY. Third American from the last London edition. With Notes by JOHN TOWNSEND, Esq. 1 vol. 8vo. Price $5.00.

☞ The American Notes supplied by Mr. TOWNSEND (an experienced author and a practising lawyer), add greatly to the usefulness of the work, and fitly illustrate the text.

☞ If obliged to characterize the book in a single sentence, we should call it "The Philosophy of Evidence." It shows how we acquire our knowledge of facts; the circumstances which impede or facilitate the acquisition of that knowledge; the means by which the knowledge, when obtained, is either lost or perpetuated; the difficulties in the way of communicating a knowledge of facts from one to another; the methods of distinguishing between truth and falsehood, and by which to test the value of human testimony. Together with a chapter upon ADVOCACY, and another upon THE EXAMINATION OF WITNESSES. The whole calculated to assist in the acquisition of that most difficult accomplishment—the art of trying a cause before a jury.

☞ To add to the practical purposes of the volume, DAVID PAUL BROWN'S "Golden Rules for the Examination of Witnesses," COX'S "Practical Advice for conducting the Examination of Witnesses," and WHEWELL'S "Theory and Fact," have been placed in an Appendix. These articles are quite in harmony with the character of Mr. RAM'S Treatise, and add very materially to the value of the work.

Adapted to practical and general use in the Discussion and Determination of Questions of Law. With extensive Additions and Annotations. By JOHN TOWNSEND, Esq., of the New York Bar. 1 vol. 8vo. Price $5.00.

☞ The American edition of this Legal Classic, now first presented to the notice of the profession, has been greatly enlarged, and adapted to the present state of the law. Mr. Townsend's additions and annotations very materially enhance the value of this work, which has always been regarded as among the best in legal literature.

The Law Reporter says: "Anything from Mr. Sedgwick is sure to be welcomed. He touches nothing on which he does not impress the mark of his active, resolute, and vigorous mind. He writes clearly and ably; nor does he hesitate to express his own conclusions, even on disputed points. This is a recommendation of no ordinary character."

Sedgwick on Statutory and Constitutional Law.

A TREATISE ON THE RULES which Govern the Interpretation and Application of Statutory and Constitutional Law. By THEODORE SEDGWICK. New edition. With Full Notes, by JOHN NORTON POMEROY, LL. D.

✎ "In the work now before us, the learned author has happily chosen a subject of great interest, and one upon which few text-books are to be found. The great feature of our jurisprudence, which distinguishes it from that of all other countries, is the existence of written constitutions, which prescribe limits to the power of the government, and establish a fundamental law, to be interpreted by the Courts, as a bulwark between the popular will of the passing hour, and the serious and sober expression of that will authentically manifested in these great charters. Under other forms of government, the fundamental law has less power. Magna Charta, for instance, the great original of all these modern constitutions, appeals, however solemnly, only to the discretion of Parliament, and the Judges of England cannot abrogate a law, passed with due formality, because it conflicts with any of the principles of the constitution.

"The American charters, derived from a common source, present a great uniformity of general appearance; they all provide for the distribution of the powers of government among the three departments, executive, legislative, and judicial, and forbid either to overstep its own limits; they guarantee trial by jury, equality of taxation, protection to persons and property against arbitrary acts of either department, as well as against private oppression, &c. But all these are expressed in general terms, and it is left to the judicial department to expound their meaning and enforce their sanction. Mr. Sedgwick gives in a manner at once elegant and clear a synopsis of all the decisions, and a judicious estimate of their respective authority and effect. We recommend especially to the careful attention of our readers his fifth chapter, upon the boundaries of legislative and judicial power.

"Our author's subject carries him also into a general consideration, which he conducts in a highly able and scholarlike manner, of the construction of statutes, a department not so entirely new, but, in its practical importance to the working men of the profession, not inferior to any branch of the law; and his views upon this branch are thoughtfully studied out and well expressed."—Law Reporter.

Shearman & Redfield on Negligence.

A TREATISE ON THE LAW OF NEGLIGENCE, and the Remedies for Private Wrongs, and the Negligent Performance of Contracts. By THOMAS G. SHEARMAN and AMASA A. REDFIELD, Counsellors at Law. Third edition.

✎ The only treatise on the subject. This able work covers the entire field, and cites over 4,000 adjudged cases. No recent law work has met with such general favor. The book is a large 8vo. of 800 pages. Price $7.50.

"It is a first-class work in topic, in contents, and in treatment. It abounds with comprehensive and vigorous reasoning, as well as clear, lucid, and bold thinking. Its learning is exhaustive, and arranged in no cheap, slovenly, or incoherent manner. The authors, in a page, frequently express the results of countless volumes of reported cases by a skillful resume, at once thorough, accurate, and stated with guarded caution, and yet no verbosity. * * * * *

"No lawyer, who desires to be armed in this leading head of the law, will neglect to read this book carefully, methodically, and critically."—Boston Post.

"The authors seem to have given careful study to the whole subject, and to have entered into a clear analysis and thorough research of every point connected with it. It is written in a plain, yet attractive style, and as free as possible from mere technicalities. Its statement of principles and authorities is concise, yet comprehensive. The plan of the work is admirable, presenting, as it does, every subject on which it treats under its appropriate head, and in chapters and sections, to which is prefixed a complete analysis of the special topic under consideration, so that at a glance the student or practitioner can find the point desired in the context, with such references to decisions upon it as the foot-notes, which are very full and complete, may contain."—The Law Transcript.

"It embraces a mass of information of importance in every-day practice, which is not otherwise accessible. * * * The book is one which has been greatly needed. We know of no work, which will be more useful to a lawyer in general practice than this volume."—American Law Review

ABBOTTS' NEW YORK DIGEST.—A Digest of New York Reports and Statutes from the Earliest Period to the year 1873. Comprising the adjudications of all Courts of the State, together with the Statutes of General Application. 6 vols. Royal octavo. $7.50 per vol. New edition. By Abbott Bros. New York, 1873-74.

“We do not hesitate to say that, in breadth of design, thoroughness of research, comprehension of the multitudinous subjects in hand, classification, convenience, and accuracy, there is no similar work in the world which can, as a whole, compare with this Digest.”—N. Y. Legal Transcript.

 This work has acquired a National reputation, and the volumes should be in the possession of every Lawyer, not only of New York, but of all the States, as they are almost equally valuable in every part of the Union.

ABBOTTS' FORMS OF PRACTICE AND PLEADING.—A Full Collection of Forms of Practice and Pleading in Actions, whether for legal or equitable relief, and in special proceedings. Prepared with reference to the Codes of Procedure, and to the New Practice as existing in the States of New York, Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, Iowa, Oregon, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Missouri, Alabama, California, and other States. 2 vols. $12.00. By Abbott Bros. New York, 1873.

 The object of this work is to present a well-selected and ample collection of forms of Practice and Pleading, with especial reference to the changes in practice introduced in many of the States by the Code of Procedure or Practice Acts.

 These forms have met with the general approval of the Legal Profession, and, from the unusual success attending the work, the publishers believe it to be the best of its kind now in use.

ABBOTTS' CLERKS' AND CONVEYANCERS' ASSISTANT.—A Collection of Forms of Conveyancing, Contracts, and Legal Proceedings. For the Use of the Legal Profession, Business Men, and Public Officers in the United States. With copious Instructions, Explanations, and Authorities. By Abbott Bros. 8vo. $6.00. New York, 1874.

 This work is the Latest, Fullest, and Best. It is divided into NINETY-FIVE CHAPTERS, and contains over One Thousand Three Hundred Forms, covering nearly every subject connected with Conveyancing, Contracts, and Legal Proceedings.

The work is intended for circulation in every part of the country. Care has been taken, upon all subjects of general importance, to explain the difference between the laws of different States, and, where necessary, to present forms appropriate to each.

ABBOTT'S LEGAL REMEMBRANCER.—Containing Concise Statements of the Law as it now is on subjects of general importance, particularly adapted to the State of New York. By Austin Abbott. 12mo. $2.75. New York, 1872.

ABBOTTS' DIGEST OF THE LAW OF CORPORATIONS.—This work is a General Digest of the Law of Corporations. It presents the American Adjudications of general interest, upon Public and Private Corporations of every kind, with a full selection of English cases. In one large, extra size royal 8vo. volume of over one thousand pages. By Abbott Bros. $10.00. New York, 1869.

 This work embraces all branches of the Law of Corporations. Under the titles of the various specific corporations, such as Banks, Insurance, Manufacturing and Mining Companies, Municipal Corporations, Railroad Companies, Religious Corporations, Savings Banks, Telegraph and Turnpike Companies, &c., the laws particularly applicable to each are presented.

ABBOTTS' PRACTICE REPORTS.—Reports of Practice Cases Determined in the Courts of the State of New York, with a Digest of all Points of Practice embraced in the Standard New York Reports and Acts of the Legislature, published during the period covered by each volume. (Beginning 1854, and continuing to present time.) By Abbott Bros. 19 vols. $5.00 per vol. $95.00. New Series, 15 vols., $5.00 per vol.

 By Practice Cases the editors do not mean cases decided under the Code exclusively. Cases illustrative of Criminal Practice, of the mode of conducting Special Proceedings, of the Rules of Evidence, of Procedure in the various Special Tribunals, are, to a considerable extent, embraced in the plan.

In a word, the series embraces decisions which instruct the professional man how to do that which he is liable, professionally, to be called upon to do.

 The cases reported in this volume comprise all the Prize Suits (nearly two hundred) decided in these Courts during the Rebellion, with the exception of a few in which decrees were entered without any opinion having been filed by the Court.

 Aside from the value to the Legal Profession, the volume is particularly interesting as a contribution to the history of the late Rebellion—giving, as it does, the facts in many Cases which are of special public importance.

BLACKWELL ON TAX TITLES.—A Practical Treatise on the power to sell land for the Non-Payment of Taxes, embracing the Decisions of the Federal Courts, and of the Supreme Judicial Tribunals of the several States. BLISS ON LIFE INSURANCE.—The Law of Life Insurance, with chapters upon Accident and Guarantee Insurance. By George Bliss. Second edition. 8vo. $7.50. New York, 1874.

 No previous treatise upon the Law of Life Insurance has appeared in this country since 1854. At that time the principles of Law applicable to questions in Life Insurance had received from the Courts no practical application or development, and hardly a dozen cases upon the subject were to be found in our Reports.

The present work has been prepared by a Lawyer of nearly Twenty Years' Standing at the New York Bar (now U. S. District Attorney for the Southern District of New York), whose practice has compelled him to examine the questions involved. He has brought to the treatment of the subject great industry and research. He has referred not only to the decisions contained in the Reports of the United States and England, but to those of Scotland and Ireland—the references embracing all Reports published prior to January, 1874.

☞ This is a learned, philosophical, and highly interesting work—not "a mere law book," treating of subtle, refined, and technical doctrines of Law, but a treatise on the logical rules whereby truth is ascertained and established by combinations of isolated facts, and the presumptions properly arising therefrom. Its perusal will dispel from any mind the fallacy so general (we had almost said universal) with persons not of the legal profession, that "circumstantial evidence" is at best but feeble, and not to be relied on.

BURRILL'S LAW DICTIONARY AND GLOSSARY.—A Law Dictionary and Glossary: Containing full definitions of the principal terms of the Common and Civil Law, together with translations and explanations of the various technical phrases in different languages occurring in the ancient and modern reports and standard treatises; embracing also all the principal common and civil law maxims. Compiled on the basis of Spelman's Glossary, and adapted to the jurisprudence of the United States; with copious illustrations, critical and historical. By Alexander M. Burrill. Second Edition. Revised and Enlarged. 2 vols. Royal octavo. $10.00. New York, 1871.

 This work, as its title indicates, and as the author explains in his advertisement, combines the characteristic features of a defining dictionary, with those of a Glossary: being, in both respects, devoted exclusively to the exposition of the language of the law. As a dictionary, it embraces the definition of law terms, including not only technical terms, properly so called, but also such ordinary words as have been used in technical senses, or made the subjects of judicial or legislative construction or definition. The latter branch is an entirely new feature, and will prove as valuable as it is novel.

The Hon. late Samuel Nelson, of the Supreme Court of the United States, says: "It is the most complete and perfect work of the kind that has fallen under my observation, and cannot fail to be highly useful, not only to the student, but also to the experienced practitioner. No law library should be without it. It is a work that needs only to be known to be appreciated."

The late Hon. Lewis H. Sandford, of the Superior Court of the City of New York, said: "I have no hesitation in warmly commending it to the attention of the public. It is undoubtedly the most complete and valuable Law Dictionary that has been published in our Language."

Decisions. By Daniel Gardner. 1 vol. $5.50. New York, 1860.

"I regard the work as a most valuable and accurate one, and much more essential to a practicing lawyer than its title would seem to indicate. Indeed, many of its titles embrace subjects of every-day interest, such as the law of Marriage and Divorce, Authentication of Statutes, Foreign Judgments and Decrees, Bankruptcy, Pilotage and Salvage, Navigable Waters, &c., and many others, upon which the authorities are collected and the legal rules stated with accuracy and discrimination. In my opinion the work will much facilitate the labors of the Bar and the Bench."
—Wm. Curtis Noyes.

"The work evinces great learning and research in relation to the rights and duties of American citizens under our State and National Governments, and, at the same time, presents a concise system of International Law, as held by our Republic.

"It will fill a place in American Law and civil polity which has not been filled before. It should be in the hands of every public man, of the officers of the Army and Navy of the United States, of Merchants generally, of Judges and Lawyers, of private gentlemen, and, in short, of every citizen who wishes to become acquainted with the institutions of his own country, and with our relations and duties toward foreign nations."—*N. It embraces British and Colonial Decisions, as well as those in the various States of this country and in the United States Courts; and those made in this State come as far down as the second volume of Abbott and the eleventh of Howard's Practice Reports. The arrangement is alphabetical under the plaintiff's name, so that at a glance the lawyer can tell whether any given decision has been overruled or doubted. RAM'S SCIENCE OF LEGAL JUDGMENT.—A Treatise designed to show the Materials whereof, and the Process by which Courts construct their Judgments. Adapted to practical and general use in the Discussion and Determination of Questions of Law. By James Ram, Barrister. With extensive Additions and Annotations, by John Townshend. 8vo. $5.00. New York, 1871.

 The American edition of this legal classic, now first presented to the notice of the profession, has been greatly enlarged, and adapted to the present state of the Law. Mr. Townshend's additions and annotations very materially enhance the value of this work, which has always been regarded as among the best in legal literature.

Judge T. M. COOLEY, of Michigan, so widely known as a Judge, Professor, and Author, says, "RAM ON LEGAL JUDGMENT is a work which ought to be a great deal better known than it is, and you will do the profession most valuable service if you succeed in introducing it generally. Every lawyer who aims at precise and accurate knowledge, and every judge who would make his judicial opinions unassailable in point of propriety, and who desires to exclude from his premises whatever could not properly constitute an element in legal judgment, ought to be familiar with this work. I am very glad you found so satisfactory an editor for it. Mr. Townshend has done his work faithfully, and whatever he has added is not only valuable, but is blended with the original materials with skill and discrimination."

☞ This standard work has obtained so high and wide a reputation both in Europe and America, that it is unnecessary to repeat the numerous testimonials it has received. The Law Reporter says: "Anything from Mr. Sedgwick is sure to be welcomed. He touches nothing on which he does not impress the mark of his active, resolute, and vigorous mind. He writes clearly and ably; nor does he hesitate to express his own conclusions even on disputed points. This is a recommendation of no ordinary character."

"THE LEGAL CLASSIC."—One of the most accomplished of legal critics, in a review of the new edition of "Sedgwick on Damages," applies a phrase to this work which will be generally accepted. He says:

"The publication of this new edition of this legal classic will be hailed as a welcome event by every lawyer who would keep posted on the conflicting, fluctuating and still advancing Law of Damages. The latest Law of Damages is the only law on that topic which is of any sort of use to the profession. What the student, the practitioner and the judge want to know is the Law of Damages as it stands to-day, and in testing this new edition it must be brought to this essential standard of practical usefulness. We think the large additions by Mr. HENRY DWIGHT SEDGWICK are superior to the original work itself, and indicate that he might safely have aspired to the authorship of an original treatise on damages instead of annotating the work of another. Many of the notes would read excellently well as independent chapters in an original treatise, while there is hardly a single topic treated by the original author which has not, by a skilful and well-timed note or case, been brought square down to the present day."

 This is the only American treatise on the subject. It covers the entire field, and cites over 4,000 adjudged cases. No recent law work has met with such general favor.

"It is a first-class work in topic, in contents, and in treatment. It abounds with comprehensive and vigorous reasoning, as well as clear, lucid, and bold thinking. Its learning is exhaustive, and arranged in no cheap, slovenly, or incoherent manner. The authors, in a page, frequently express the results of volumes of reported cases by a skilful resume, at once thorough, accurate, and stated with guarded caution, and yet no verbosity. No lawyer who desires to be armed in this leading head of the law, will neglect to read this book carefully, methodically, and critically."—Boston Post.

"The authors seem to have given careful study to the whole subject, and to have entered into a clear analysis and thorough research of every point connected with it. It is written in a plain, yet attractive style, and as free as possible from mere technicalities. Its statement of principles and authorities is concise, yet comprehensive. The plan of the work is admirable, so that at a glance the student or practitioner can find the point desired in the context, with such references to decisions upon it as the foot-notes, which are very full and complete, may contain."—The Law Telegraph.

"It embraces a mass of information of importance in every-day practice, which is not otherwise accessible. The book is one which has been greatly needed. We know of no work which will be more useful to a lawyer in general practice than this volume."—American Law Review.

This is a treatise of no ordinary merit. The author brought to his task a long and extensive practice in his profession, an unusual familiarity with the branch of law treated upon, a vast general reading, together with a long apprenticeship to author-craft. These qualifications have enabled him to produce a work replete with recondite learning, and presenting an exhaustive view of his subject in the most logical and convincing form. While the author deals with each topic upon principle, he is profuse in his citation of authorities ; the Notes of Reference to decisions exceed two thousand, and occupy one-half of the volume, which contains over seven hundred pages.

A text-book of unquestionable utility.—London Solicitors' Journal.

Destined for years to come to be the text-book on slander and libel.—New York Herald.

WATERMAN ON SET-OFF.—A Treatise on the Law of Set-Off, Recoupment, and Counter-Claim. Second edition. By Thos. W. Waterman. 8vo. $7.50. New York, 1872.

☞ The subject of Set-Off, Recoupment, and Counter-Claim, is not second in importance to any in the law; scarcely a case, either great or small, being now prepared for trial, in which, in one form or another, it does not arise.

The design is to furnish, in a convenient form, a complete practical exposition of the law of Set-Off, &c., as it exists at the present time in England, and in each of the States.

☞ The fact that it is nearly thirty years since any work on Set-Off, Recoupment, and Counter-Claim has been published, partly accounts for the favor with which Mr. Waterman's work has been received. Probably no law writer ever received a larger number of voluntary letters (sent from various parts of the country), thanking him for the good service he has done the profession in preparing his valuable work.

Hon. Judge Bosworth, of New York, expresses his commendation in the following words:

"In my opinion, the Treatise possesses very great merits; and no lawyer who examines it, will delay adding it to his library. The arrangement is good; and the subject is discussed with great ability; and all the cases are cited with the rules which they establish or illustrate. Such a work has long been wanted, and I think the judgment of the profession will be highly satisfactory."

Judge Nelson, late of the U. S. Supreme Court, in a letter complimentary to the work, says:

"These defenses to actions have greatly increased, and been enlarged by the adjudications of courts in the administration of the law, to avoid circuity of action; and they deserve to be treated at large, as a distinct and important head of the law; and as far as I have been able to look into it, I think you have done ample justice to the subject. You are entitled to the thanks of the Bench and Bar, for giving them so useful a volume."

Judge Balcomb, of the N. Y. Supreme Court, writes as follows:

"I have examined your book on Set-Off, Recoupment, and Counter-claim, and find it convenient and valuable. It is a work greatly needed by the profession. The questions indicated by its title are so well and so thoroughly treated, that it will save practicing lawyers a vast amount of labor. It is the best treatise of this kind I have ever seen."

WIGRAM AND O'HARA ON THE LAW OF WILLS.—Part I.—On Extrinsic Evidence. By Sir James Wigram. Part II.—On Construction of Wills. By John P. O'Hara.

☞ Sir James Wigram's Treatise on Extrinsic Evidence in aid of the Interpretation of Wills has long been esteemed as one of the ablest works in legal literature, and its value is now greatly enhanced to the American lawyer by the extensive additions to the text and the copious references to American cases by Mr. O'Hara.

Of the philosophic excellence of Sir James Wigram's work, there never has been any doubt. The treatise is also eminently practical, and contains a mine of information upon almost all branches of its subject-matter. Nearly 700 cases are cited, clearly showing the settled English and American law on this branch of the law.

☞ The new treatise on the Construction of Wills, by Mr. O'Hara, faithfully presents the Rules adopted by the American Courts, and it is believed that a recent compendious statement of the Law of Wills will be of great value in every library.

The author has thoroughly examined the subject, and cites nearly 2,000 English and American cases.

WIGRAM AND O'HARA ON THE LAW OF WILLS is a large octavo vol. of 850 pages. $7.50. New York, 1872.

☞ No recent law book has been more highly commended by the legal press and by many eminent lawyers.

☞ The Hon. Thomas M. Cooley, so widely known as a Legal Author, Professor, and Judge, sent the following letter to the publishers.

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN, ANN ARBOR, February 10, 1873.

"I desire to express to Mr. O'Hara my sense of the great service he has done to the legal profession in the publication of a new edition of Wigram on Wills, with his notes and accompanying treatise. I have been making use of the book of late, and find that Mr. O'Hara has come to his task with full preparation, and that he gives, with judgment and discrimination, the results of the recent cases. It is gratifying to have a work of such standard value so well edited, and still more so to find the subject of Construction and the evidence bearing upon it so thoroughly and skilfully treated. The work must certainly meet with general acceptance as the profession become acquainted with its merits."

BRITISH LAW TERMS.

By the Act 1 William IV, cap. 70, it is provided that in A. D., 1831, and afterward,—

HILARY TERM shall begin on the 11th, and end on the 31st of January.

EASTER TERM shall begin on the 15th April, and end on the 8th May.

TRINITY TERM shall begin on the 22d May, and end on the 12th June.

MICHAELMAS TERM shall begin on the 2d, and end on the 25th November.

By the Act 1 & 2 William IV, cap. 3, it was further provided “That in case the Day of the Month on which any Term according to the Act aforesaid is to end shall fall to be on a Sunday, then the Monday next after such Day shall be deemed and taken to be the last Day of the Term; and that in case any of the Days between the Thursday before and the Wednesday next after Easter shall fall within Easter Term, then such Days shall be deemed and taken to be a part of such Term, although there shall be no Sittings in Bank on any of such intervening Days.”

The Long Vacation extends from the 10th August to 24th October.

The first Law Term is called from St. Hilary, “Hilary Term,” because it used to commence on his festival (January 13). The Law Terms were originally regulated by the Canonical Constitution of the Church, which, by exempting certain seasons, namely, Christmas, Easter, Pentecost, and the harvest season, from forensic litigation, divided the year into four periods, or terms, called from the festivals immediately preceding their commencement, Hilary, Easter, Trinity, and Michaelmas terms.

In Scotland, the Law Terms are differently arranged. The Court of Session sits from 12th November to 20th March, and from 12 May to 20th July. But there, as in England and Ireland, the judges are employed in other business during the intervals.

†The Revised Edition of the Statutes. Vols. 1, 2 and 3—Henry III. to 41 Geo.

III. Prepared under the direction of the Statute Law Committee, and published by Authority of Her Majesty's Government. Imp. 8vo. 1235 to 1800.

Chronological Table of and Index to the Statutes, to the end of the Session of 1872. 1 Imp. 8vo. 1872.

*Modern Acts of Parliament are divided into the classes of Public General, Local and Personal, Private Acts printed by the King's Printer, and Private Acts not so printed; but some variations have from time to time taken place in the mode of division, as may be seen from the following statement of particulars, derived from the Sessional Tables prefixed to the Volumes of Statutes printed by authority:

1. From the reign of Rich. III. to 25 Geo. II., the division is simply into Public and Private Acts.

2. From 26 Geo. II. to 37 Geo. III., after the list of Public Acts, is a list of Acts termed Public Acts not printed in this collection; and then follows the list of Private Acts.

3. From 38 Geo. III. to 42 Geo. III., the division is into three classes, termed, Public General Acts; Public Local and Personal Acts; and Private Acts.

4. From 43 Geo. III. to 54 Geo. III., the classes are termed Public General Acts; Local and Personal Acts to be judicially noticed; and Local and Personal Acts not printed.

5. From 55 Geo. III. to the present time the division is four fold, under the following terms:—Public General Acts; Local and Personal Acts declared Public, etc; Private Acts printed by the King's Printer; and Private Acts not printed.

† This work will be completed in about 18 volumes, from about 800 to 1000 pages each, and will be published periodically.
